

THE ACADEMY MONITOR

VOLUME 9, ISSUE 4

FROM THE COMMANDANT

Greetings from the great Halls of Learning, Starfleet Academy!

From the Principal's Office

Here we are, the beginning of a new year, still trying to get accustomed to writing 2016, and STARFLEET Academy has plans to make itself better for all the members of STARFLEET. Ok, when doesn't it?

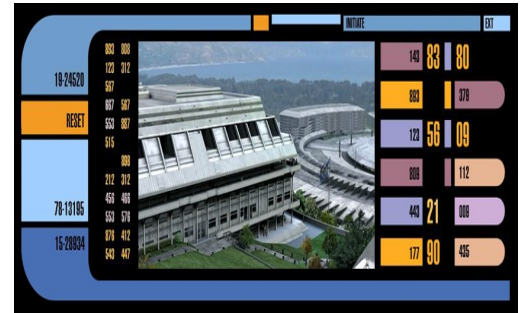

I'm starting my ninth year as the Academy's Commandant and I have seen so many changes since January 1, 2008. The Academy has grown with more Institutes, housing more colleges, that house more courses and now we have found that sometimes more isn't always better. Many of the once, very active colleges have fizzled down to practically not even getting any students to some none at all. So, a moratorium on new Colleges will be waived only for those that will be considered educational, a popular series, and of those that would enhance Academy.

Project Purge and Merge is coming along nicely. There are some Colleges and courses tagged for purging later on, since they are losing graduate counts over 3 years and of overall interest.

2015 was a very active year. The total graduate count for 2015 was 20,908. This is an approximate average of 1742 grads per month! I foresee 2016 as also being a very busy year for members as well as the staff at the Academy.

ACADEMY CADET NEWS

Hello everyone.

Some of you may remember an award I started about three years ago, called the Cadet Star Award. For those of you who don't remember, let me refresh your memories.

Cadets (6 to 18 yrs of age) who take courses from the college offerings within the Institute of Cadet Studies must complete a college with Honors &/or Distinctions. When doing so, they receive a congratulatory letter from myself as well as a special certificate and a gold star pin. They can complete as many colleges as they want, earning more letters, certificates and pins.

If a cadet completes any college within the Adult Institutes with Honors and/or Distinctions and only 1 Pass, the cadet will also earn the Cadet Star Award.

Some of the older cadets (13 to 18) have never attempted the colleges within the adult institutes because they didn't know they were allowed to. So, please pass this on to your cadet members.

I do hope with these incentives, that we start seeing more of our younger members start getting involved at STARFLEET Academy.

CADET STAR AWARDS

Congratulations to Katherine Lighthouse - College of Young Detectives - Hardy Boys TV

Congratulations to Martin Lighthouse Jr. - College of Space History

Congratulations to Cynthia Lighthouse - College of Xeno Studies

Remember, those of you who direct Cadet Colleges, that when you have a Cadet who has fully completed a Cadet College with Honors and/or Distinctions to let me know so I can send that Cadet the same Award.

They can earn as many Star awards as there are Cadet Colleges.

I'd love to see a Cadet weighed down by loads of star pins!

ACADEMY INFORMATION

ACADEMY INFORMATION

Further information about the Academy, its staff and faculty, courses offered, and scholarships will be found at the following website:

<http://acad.sfi.org/courses/index.php>

SO YOU WANT TO BE A DIRECTOR

Basic requirements are: Be at least 18 years of age and have taken OTS and OCC. Cadets at least 14 years of age may serve with an adult mentor.

To assume a vacancy, you must pass all of the exams in the College, or if a College of 35 to 60 exams, 75% of the exams. Colleges over 60 exams are tested out at 50%, with a maximum of 50 exams required.

Assistant Directors must meet the same requirements as the Director.

To direct a College of your own creation, first check the College Catalogue to make certain your idea is not already being used.

If the concept is not being used elsewhere, submit a College outline, exam, and key to the Course Development Contact, Carol Thompson at: betazoid@mosquionet.com

She will determine where your College fits within the Academy structure and introduce you to your Dean, who will lead you through the approval process.

CONDOLENCES

Bruce Hyde, who played Lt. Kevin Riley on the original Star Trek series, has died. Hyde had suffered from throat cancer and died on October 13, 2015 in a hospice near St. Cloud, MN, according to the Star Tribune.

He was a Dallas native who played Enterprise crew member Lt. Kevin Riley on just two early episodes of the original Star Trek series, "The Naked Time" and "The Conscience of the King". They remain memorable ones for fans. His character met an untimely end in the second episode and never appeared again on the series, but did appear in Star Trek novels and other fan fiction.

His other TV credits include Dr. Kildare, The Beverly Hillbillies and That Girl. He spent the majority of his career in theater. He chaired the department of theater, film studies and dance at St. Cloud State University for more than 20 years before he stepped down earlier this year.

NEW STAR TREK SERIES PREMIERS IN 2017

Continued.....

Born from the mind of Gene Roddenberry, the original Star Trek series debuted on Sept. 8, 1966 and aired for three seasons – a short run that belied the influence it would have for generations. The series also broke new ground in storytelling and cultural mores, providing a progressive look at topics including race relations, global politics and the environment.

“There is no better time to give Star Trek fans a new series than on the heels of the original show’s 50th anniversary celebration,” said David Stapf, President, CBS Television Studios. “Everyone here has great respect for this storied franchise, and we’re excited to launch its next television chapter in the creative mind and skilled hands of Alex Kurtzman, someone who knows this world and its audience intimately.”

“This new series will premiere to the national CBS audience, then boldly go where no first-run Star Trek series has gone before – directly to its millions of fans through CBS All Access,” said Marc DeBevoise, Executive Vice President/General Manager – CBS Digital Media. “We’ve experienced terrific growth for CBS All Access, expanding the service across affiliates and devices in a very short time. We now have an incredible opportunity to accelerate this growth with the iconic Star Trek, and its devoted and passionate fan base, as our first original series.”

“Every day, an episode of the Star Trek franchise is seen in almost every country in the world,” said Armando Nuñez, President and CEO, CBS Global Distribution Group. “We can’t wait to introduce Star Trek’s next voyage on television to its vast global fan base.”

CBS All Access offers its customers more than 7,500 episodes from the current television season, previous seasons and classic shows on demand nationwide, as well as the ability to stream local CBS stations live in more than 110 markets. Subscribers can use the service online and across devices via CBS.com, the CBS App for iOS, Android and Windows 10, as well as on connected devices such as Apple TV, Android TV, Chromecast, Roku players and Roku TV, with more connected devices to come.

The new television series is not related to the upcoming feature film Star Trek Beyond which is scheduled to be distributed by Paramount Pictures in summer 2016.

CBS Television Studios announced today it will launch a totally new Star Trek television series in January 2017. The new series will blast off with a special preview broadcast on the CBS Television Network. The premiere episode and all subsequent first-run episodes will then be available exclusively in the United States on CBS All Access, the Network's digital subscription video on demand and live streaming service.

The next chapter of the Star Trek franchise will also be distributed concurrently for television and multiple platforms around the world by CBS Studios International.

The new program will be the first original series developed specifically for U.S. audiences for CBS All Access, a cross-platform streaming service that brings viewers thousands of episodes from CBS's current and past seasons on demand, plus the ability to stream their local CBS Television station live for $5.99 per month. CBS All Access already offers every episode of all previous Star Trek television series.

The brand-new Star Trek will introduce new characters seeking imaginative new worlds and new civilizations, while exploring the dramatic contemporary themes that have been a signature of the franchise since its inception in 1966.

Alex Kurtzman will serve as executive producer for the new Star Trek TV series. Kurtzman co-wrote and produced the blockbuster films Star Trek \(2009\) with Roberto Orci, and Star Trek Into Darkness (2013) with Orci and Damon Lindelof. Both films were produced and directed by J.J. Abrams.

The new series will be produced by CBS Television Studios in association with Kurtzman's Secret Hideout. Kurtzman and Heather Kadin will serve as executive producers. Kurtzman is also an executive producer for the hit CBS television series Scorpion and Limitless, along with Kadin and Orci, and for Hawaii Five-0 with Orci.

Star Trek, which will celebrate its 50th anniversary in 2016, is one of the most successful entertainment franchises of all time. The original Star Trek spawned a dozen feature films and five successful television series. Almost half a century later, the Star Trek television series are licensed on a variety of different platforms in more than 190 countries, and the franchise still generates more than a billion social media

STAR TREK 4

We know it doesn't take much to get Star Trek fans engaged in debate. So we put it to you: was Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home – which opened on November 26, 1986, or 29 years ago, and was unquestionably the most financially successful and probably the most popular of the original-cast features -- also the best of the six big-screen adventures starring William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, Nichelle Nichols, James Doohan, George Takei and Walter Koenig. The Star-Trek.com staff says... yes, trailed oh-so-closely by Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan.

Star Trek IV had everything: a great Trek premise, drama, humor, a pro-environment message and plenty of action, not to mention whales and a story broad enough and contemporary enough to appeal to the non-Trek fans of the day. The late, great Nimoy directed with a light touch, with the notable exception of that quirky/cool sci-fi/time travel montage during the slingshot sequence, and, best of all, everyone in the supporting cast got his or her moment to shine. We also loved Leonard Roseman's spot-on score, the superb, Oscar-nominated work of cinematographer Don Peterman, and the lovely performances by Mark Lenard and Jane Wyatt as Spock's father and mother, respectively. Catherine Hicks added warmth, charm and fun to the proceedings as Dr. Gillian Taylor, though she and Shatner did not quite click on the romantic chemistry end of the equation. And, it was also nice to see Majel Barrett and Grace Lee Whitney (who, sadly, passed away in May at the age of 85) in the Trek fold once again.

Anyone old enough to remember the making of the film still speaks of the production with awe in their voices. Nimoy shot much of The Voyage Home on location, and that open-air feeling benefits the film. They shot on a real Naval ship, and there's no mistaking that, either. There are near-legendary stories about securing the whale footage, and that footage was craftily edited into additional scenes realized with large animatronics and scale models. And then there were the San Francisco Bay scenes, with the Klingon Bird of Prey. Those were shot in the famous water tank – called B Tank, capable of holding 914,023 gallons of water – at Paramount Pictures. Nimoy, sporting Spock's white robe, oversaw the proceedings as the cast stood astride the downed Bird of Prey, wind machines whipped water all around, lightning machines crackled and cameras rolled. At one point, James Doohan slipped and flopped into the water. Everyone on set got a laugh out of it, including Doohan, who was unhurt. That particular take is not in the resulting scene in the movie, but check out the end-credits sequence that recaps the film. Nimoy – or maybe his film editor – snuck it in there.

Anyway, 29 years later, the film holds up beautifully. It looks and sounds fantastic. Wrath of Khan is far more dramatic, of course, and it's inarguably purer Star Trek, but, for our money, The Voyage Home wins the honor of being the best original-cast Star Trek film.

STAR TREK MAD LIBS

The following words say it all: Star Trek Mad Libs.

Yes, folks, it's true... Star Trek is getting the Mad Libs treatment courtesy of Penguin Books/Price Stern Sloan. Due out on April 5, 2016, it'll feature 21 stories written by Eric Luper and inspired by Star Trek: The Original Series and the TOS features.

Star Trek Mad Libs will cost $4.99 in the U.S. and $6.50 in Canada. Go to www.penguinrandomhouse.com/books to pre-order.

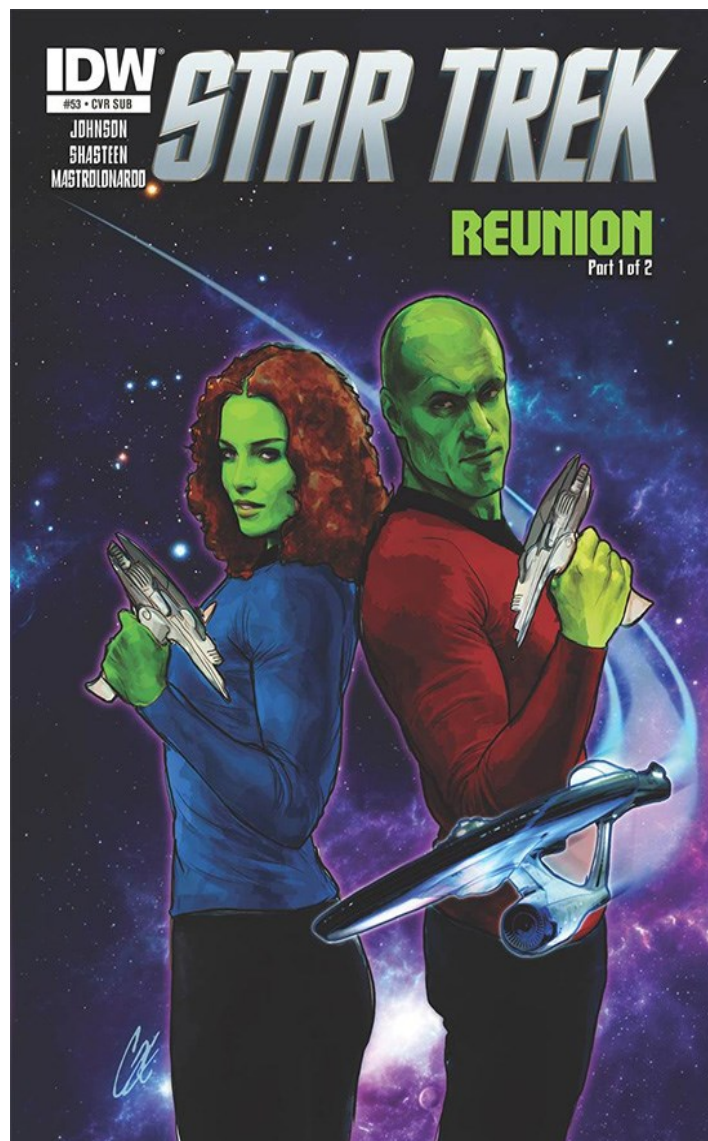

CAT STAGGS VARIANT COVER FOR REUNION

IDW Publishing's Star Trek #53—Five-Year Mission, "Reunion, Part I," was released in January, and StarTrek.com is pleased to give fans an exclusive First Look at the variant cover by Cat Staggs.

As previously reported, #53 is written by Mike Johnson, with art and a cover by Tony Shasteen. The all-new adventure begins as Captain Kirk and the crew of the Enterprise face off with a renegade faction of Orions intent on disrupting the truce between their species and the Federation. Star Trek #53 will run 32 pages and cost $3.99.

For additional details, contact your local comic book retailer or visit comicshoplocator.com to find a store near you. Keep an eye on StarTrek.com for additional details about the IDW's upcoming Star Trek adventures, as well as exclusive First Looks at covers and preview pages.

Carnegie Institution For Science

Founded in 1902, by Andrew Carnegie, the Carnegie Institution for Science provides a place for men and women working at the cutting edge of their fields to work.

Currently, these exceptional men and women, referred to on the site as investigators, are leaders in multiple fields of science. Fields like plant plant biology, developmental biology, Earth and planetary sciences, astronomy, and global ecology.

So what will you find when you visit the site? You'll find science articles, news, and videos. You can browse by department: embryology, geophysical lab, global ecology, observatories, plant biology, and terrestrial magnetism to just name a few.

On the main page you'll find the latest news, a featured video, the ask the experts button, and a list of science links from around the web. At the top of the page you'll find a navigation menu that will whisk you away to the Departments, News, Publications/Archives, and About page. This site totally makes me geek out. NAME THIS MOVIE

There is not one universe, but there are many, which is a multiverse. Supposing you are just one person and there are many other versions of you in the other universes. There are ways to travel, but only a police agency MVA can travel only for police procedures.

Gabriel Yulaw is a former MVA agent, who killed another version of himself in self-defense. It made the other versions of him stronger. When Yulaw found out about this, he became power-hungry, killing the 122 other versions of himself for two years. After killing Lawless and getting captured by his former partner Roedecker and a new MVA agent Funsch, Yulaw managed to escape the prison and is trying to kill his last target, Gabe Law, who is a police officer.

Roedecker and Funsch now have to arrest Yulaw before he can kill Gabe. There is a possibility that the universe could die or make Yulaw invincible. After encountering Yulaw for the first time, Gabe thought that it was his split personality, but it wasn't. Will Gabe be able to confront Yulaw before or after Yulaw ruins his life?
